J. Membership –Daniela Ruiz. No report.

IV. Speaker: Demi Brown, M.Ed.- Founding member of Empower Language Academy

Demi Brown is connected to Linda Vista in several ways. When she was an aspiring teacher, she worked at Carson Elementary and Montgomery Middle schools. She fell in love with diversity. She also felt that a school should be of service to the community and vice versa. She is the secretary for the Bayside Community Center Board. She also became a member of Clean Linda Vista and encouraged the students and their families to join also. Her vision was to establish a school culture that is multi-lingual, connected to their community, and fit. The children are doing cross-fit also. She has established Value Guides to follow: 1) Be proud of anything you put your name on and 2) Say what you mean and mean what you say. Empower has tours of the academy every 3rd Thursday at 9:30 AM. They have a Gala on May 18th at 5PM to raise money for the school which the public is encouraged to attend.

V. Other Community Organizations:

A. Kim Hanson from Bayside Community Environmental Learning Center announced that they have a seed library and that this Friday, 4/19/24, you may have several different seeds to plant for free. They will also be at the Multicultural Fair.

B. Felicity Senoski of the Linda Vista Planning Group that at their next meeting on March 25th from 5:30 to 7:30 PM, that District Attorney Sumner-Stefan will discuss Proposition 47 reform.

VI. Community Concerns: Victor Tocco, Linda Vista Town Council, Vice President. Noel Musicha asked the town council for $3,000 to fly nine soccer players to another state by e-mail on 1/26/24. He did not submit a plan for transporting these minors across state lines. In 2018 the Linda Vista Town Council donated $3,200 for equipment purchases for the team. Having been turned down for the money for the trip, he threatened the Council members, called them racists. The minors e-mailed the Board members in anger. Since Noel was president of the Linda Vista Town Council from 2018 to 2021, he is aware of the bylaws for applying for funds. He further stated that he could get 100 people and the Media to be at this meeting tonight in protest. Kearny High School and the University of San Diego are aware of this situation.

VII. Meeting adjourned at 7:18 PM by Becky Hunt.

VIII. The meeting minutes and agendas will be posted on the website.

Respectfully submitted by Christine Weinstein, Secretary, LVTC
