The unsheltered beds available are 170. They have 56 detox beds available currently. There is also an essay contest for a 500-word essay, two-minute video student presentation. They are also collecting a lot of items for the food drive.
H. Officer Surwilo introduced a new officer that he is training as a public affairs officer. James Harris can be reached at

He wanted to remind you to call about suspicious behavior by people so that a cruiser will come by and officers can change the behaviors of which you are wary. There will be a Coffee with a Cop event at the library on December 5th from 9:30 to 11:00 AM. Stop by!
I. Miles Noel from Raul Campillo's office stated that he will have a Coffee with a Cop event on December 7th in Allied Gardens. The Carpenters' Union is giving turkeys away.

V. Public Comment:

1. Nancy from Mission Federal, which has thirty-four branches locally, is having a New Member Event. If you sign up for a checking account, you may get money back up to $150 to start.
2. Jonathan states that the Linda Vista Farmer's Market is getting multiple complaints about the carnival in Linda Vista Park. Rene, who lives at 2645 Ulric Street, said the set-up began on October 22nd. The lighting was being turned on past 10 PM and made it hard to sleep. And it was a school night. They were told it is a traveling carnival. They could be back when the Linda Vista Multi-cultural Fair is on.

3. Linda Vista's farmers market will be about a third smaller because Tuan Phat wants their parking spaces back.
4. The Linda Vista Farmer's Market had a Halloween Event. There is to be a costume contest. There will be a drawing for two bicycles if you put your name on-line. The USD gets bikes from a collective that repairs bikes that are that are given to them and then gives them away. These people were at Kit Carson's Steam Night and gave away two bikes.
5. Community Concerns: Victor Tocco reported on the Comstock issue. He is getting a petition together about Comstock for people to sign.

I. Approval of October 2024 meeting minutes: Unanimously accepted.

J. Speaker: Mike Contreras from Management MC Properties and Elkin Construction.

Mike Contreras was born in Linda Vista. He earned a degree in Civil Engineering at San Diego State University. His father had property that he rented. Mike bought a condominium, and his father said don't do it. Then he bought Astro Vista, fixed it up, and rented it to USD students. By 2007 he had twenty-nine units on Fulton Street. He bought old houses during the recession and then sold them. Then he bought land and developed it. Now he's working on the building at Ulric and Dunlop. It should be finished about the middle of June. His daughter, Nicole, is now running the company. He puts parking under the apartment buildings. The aw, says you don't need parking if a bus stop is a half mile away. He rents studios for $1,500 per month. Three bedrooms (1200 feet) for $3,500. He will build up to five stories. He likes buildings in Linda Vista because he knows it. He's been called a "Slum Lord."

K. Meeting adjourned at 7:51 PM by Becky Hunt.
L. The meeting minutes and agendas will be posted on the website.
M. The open positions on the Board are listed on the website.

Respectfully submitted by Christine Weinstein, Secretary, LVTC
